FairView Counseling and The Play Therapy Center understands that everyone, from time to time, needs help facing and dealing with the challenges that affect everyday life.

Do you know a family having difficulty adjusting to divorce or the death of a loved one, a child showing signs of aggression, a withdrawn or depressed teenager, someone facing the uncertainty and stress of a life transition or trying to deal with the effects of abuse or a violent relationship? Whatever the challenge may, working with an experienced therapist will help bring about healing, balance and wellness to bring the joy and satisfaction everyone deserves!

At FairView Counseling and The Play Therapy Center, we offer innovative treatment plans, including cognitive, play and contextual family therapies in a safe and nurturing environment. We remain dedicated to showing our clients paramount respect, dignity and compassion.

You are invited to join us for a hearty, hot breakfast and a time of information, enlightenment and play!

For more than 10 years, FairView Counseling and The Play Therapy Center has been impacting lives throughout Berks County. As the only agency with Registered Play Therapists in the County, FVC has long recognized that healthy children grow into healthy adults who create healthy communities!

On Wednesday, September 22, FVC is excited to be hosting our First Annual "Angel Of Hope" event so you can learn more about how we help our children and our community . . . and how you can champion this mission with us!

Special presentation by Dr. Robin Altman, mother of three, child psychiatrist, author of the 2008 book, "Shrink Rap: An Irreverent Take on Child Psychiatry" and stand-up comedian. Dr. Altman uses humor on a daily basis to treat children, bond with patients and help people gain perspective.
